

MOBILE RESPONSE OFFICER

Join THS Security as a Mobile Response Officer, where you'll be the first line of defence, safeguarding our sites from theft and ensuring the safety of our assets.

Your resilience and professionalism in handling unpredictable situations will shine as you approach and manage intruders with tact and confidence, prioritising safety at all times.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct regular site patrols and thorough sweeps for enhanced security.
- Swiftly respond to intrusion reports, ensuring timely intervention.
- Recover stolen goods and prevent further losses.
- Approach intruders with caution, employing de-escalation tactics and, when necessary and safe, detaining them for law enforcement.
- Maintain diligence in vehicle care and safe driving practices.
- Ensure proper operation of bodycams to record activities.
- Compile detailed incident reports for documentation and analysis.
- Foster seamless communication with the Control Room and Static Guards to facilitate swift information exchange.
- Acquaint yourself with site layouts and valuable asset locations to enhance security measures.

To Excel in This Role, You'll Need:

- Confidence in handling diverse and unpredictable situations.
- The ability to work independently with initiative and discretion.
- Familiarity with construction site safety protocols (training provided).
- Basic IT skills for report writing and communication with the Control Room.

Requirements:

- Valid SIA Licence.
- Full UK Driving Licence.
- Flexible availability for rotating evening, night, and weekend shifts.

Salary: Salary is competitive and negotiable upon experience.

In return for your dedication, we offer competitive compensation, including 28 days of holiday entitlement, comprehensive staff benefits, monthly rewards, and a provided uniform. Please note, we are unable to sponsor applications to work in the UK.
